

RESIDENTIAL ENERGY ADVISOR

What should I know about REU's Residential Energy Advisors?

WHAT IS A RESIDENTIAL ENERGY ADVISOR?

Making sense of your energy bill can be overwhelming, especially when bills are higher during peak energy months. REU's Residential Energy Advisors are here to help answer energy related questions, conduct expert energy surveys of your home and guide you through making energy upgrades that can increase your home's comfort and make your energy bill more manageable.

HOW CAN A RESIDENTIAL ENERGY ADVISOR HELP ME?

ANALYSIS

Your bill can be affected by the seasons, changes in how you use energy and by the age and/or efficiency of your home. REU's Residential Energy Advisors can help you identify key drivers of your bill, and recommend energy saving actions.

ENERGY SURVEYS

Our Residential Energy Advisors can perform a FREE home energy survey that helps you identify your highest return on investment upgrades along with low cost and no cost actions you can take to save energy.

REBATES

Taking advantage of our residential rebates can help reduce the upfront cost of your home energy upgrades. Our Residential Energy Advisors will help you understand how to access rebates that are right for you.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?
