

Temporary Board of Administrative Review Meeting Procedures

Pursuant to Governor Newsom's Executive Order's N-25-20 and N-29-20, and guidance from the California Department of Public Health, regarding gatherings and social distancing;

- 1. Members of the Board of Administrative Review and staff may participate in this meeting via teleconferencing.*
- 2. Remote public participation is available.*

During this difficult time, the City of Redding Board of Administrative Review is working to provide a safe environment for our citizens and staff by incorporating inventive ways for concerned citizens to continue to participate in the business of the City.

Agendas and Staff reports are available on-line at the City's web site at www.cityofredding.org.

Options to submit Public Comments by Regular Mail or Email:

Public Comments may be submitted by regular mail or email.

Citizens are strongly encouraged to submit public comments, whether regular mail or email, as early as possible to allow time to forward the comments to the Board of Administrative Review and for them to have adequate time to read the comments.

All Public Comments must include the Agenda Item Number (example: 4(b)1) or a description of the Item (example: New park on Z Street).

Regular Mail: mail public comments to: City of Redding, Planning Division, P.O. Box 496071, Redding, CA, 96049. Please mail early enough for your letter to be received before the meeting.

Email: public comments to: devserv@cityofredding.org.

Emails received by the Planning Division Staff any time before 12:00 p.m. (noon) on the day of the meeting will be electronically forwarded to the Board as they are received.

Emails will continue to be received after 12:00 p.m. (noon) and during the meeting until the Chair announces that the time to submit emails for each agenda item has closed. These emails will be electronically forwarded to the Board and the meeting may be recessed to allow the Board time to read the comments.
